This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kangxi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.

A Supplement, arranged for being bound and used by itself, and containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Synonyms, will be published and sold separately.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history and literature, has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are of importance in the minds of students of the Far East, and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give criticism embodying the views of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to: Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued, and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Societies, and also by the Missionaries, and are of a high degree of Chinese scholarship and are judiciously selected. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Hirth, and Hanes, Prof. Legge, and Messrs. Ballou, Watts, Foster, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jannet, Jones, Knap, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Pison, all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address: "Manager, China Mail Office."

OWNERS OF THE PRESS.

All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and entertaining Review. —Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

"The China Review"  has an excellent table of contents. —Celestial Empire.

"The Review always contains subjects of interest to readers in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison with preceding numbers." —Celestial Empire.

A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize. —Oryzanthemum.

"The Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. H. H. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chinese' treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance to Mr. E. H. Parker's 'Shen Ching-shen' in Szechuen are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length, entitled 'The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which 'On Chinese Oaths in Western Books' and 'Java' might appropriately have been placed under the heading 'Notes and Queries.' —H.K. Daily Press.

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:—The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to number our position as regards China and the country, and the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. H. H. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chinese' treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance to Mr. E. H. Parker's 'Shen Ching-shen' in Szechuen are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H.
